

The State of Connecticut requires postural screenings to be conducted for all students in grades 5 through 10. A school nurse will be performing this screening during the months of March and April. The purpose of this program is to recognize the signs of spinal curvature at its earliest stages so that the need for treatment can be determined. If further consultation is recommended, parents will be notified of the findings and will be asked to seek further evaluation from their own physician.