

Recognitions

Gail MacDonald noted that many celebrations and award ceremonies have taken place this school year.

Alisa Morrison recognized the graduating class and noted how amazing it was to watch so many students receive awards.

Deborah Downie attended the drama award banquet and recognized the high school drama students for the six Halo awards that were presented.

Leanne Masterjoseph recognized the student, Joni Moody, as the next Student Government Representative.

The Board welcomed Joni and Gail MacDonald recognized Reka Keller for her representation as the first Student Government representative to be a part of the Board table. The Board wished Reka Keller lots of luck at American University.

The Board recognized and thanked Leanne Masterjoseph for her dedication to the children of Stonington and expressed their admiration of her positive attitude and belief that every child has the ability to succeed to the upmost potential and wished her the best in her new job.

Special Report Submission – MS Success Plans

Administration explained that plans will be forwarded to the Board and will be part the July's Board meeting agenda.

Gail MacDonald announced that tonight's meeting would now move into the library and that the public was welcome to attend.

Review of Board of Education Goals

The Board discussed and reviewed the board goals with Nick Caruso from CAFE.

Next steps for goals: Caruso will return and discussion to continue at regular July Board meeting.
