Farouk Rajab, Board Chairman called the regular meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. Members present were Heidi Simmons, Secretary, Chris Donahue, Craig Esposito, Sara Baker and Kevin Agnello. Also present were Ana de Oliveira, Recording Secretary, Mary Anne Butler, Superintendent of Schools, Student Government Representative, Diya Patel, members of the administration staff and citizens. Board Member Absent: Dan Kelley

Communications & Recognitions

Mary Anne Butler, Superintendent welcomed Diya Patel the new Student Government Representative. The Superintendent communicated that on September 29th the district was notified by Dr. Melissa Hickey from the Connecticut State Department of Ed that our Wonders reading program was approved and that we are one of twelve districts with the program. Mrs. Butler also shared email correspondence from the photographer of Channel 8 who covered the event at the high school on HBI commending the staff and students for running a great event. She also gave a shout out to two students, Harper Frazer a middle school cross country athlete who after finishing the run went back to cheer on the last athlete in the meet, noting this is what Stonington Public Schools is all about. She also shared that she received a letter from an opponent's grandmother recognizing Julian Keena a Stonington High School football player who during a recent game made sure throughout the game the players he tackled were ok and that the opponent team felt welcomed. Mrs. Butler recognized Tina Eisenbeis for her work in the summer program. The program was also one of the programs recognized by Miguel Cardona at a reception. Mrs. Butler gave a shout out to the Stonington Education Foundation and President, Christina Korinek for their help in providing programs, and instruments for students. The Blue Monday's program has donated over $15,000 to the music programs and SEF has also donated $25,000 to teachers through the Apple Grant. She also thanked kindergarten teachers Mrs. Hetu and Mrs. Turgeon for allowing her to adopt one of their kindergarten classes, where she helps once a month in the classrooms.

Kevin Agnello communicated he spent a morning with Principal Irvine and got a tour of West Vine Street School. He added the school is a state of the art school and commented on how clean the school is. He was blown away with the dedication of the teachers and the support of the administration were all on display and the care for the students was so obvious. Sara Baker communicated she completed her Welcoming Schools tour at Stonington Middle School. She was able to witness various activities going on such as the Shrek Musical rehearsal, band practice, and basketball practice. The school is a hub of activity both before and after school. She added she appreciated the warm welcome at Stonington Middle School. Chris Donahue recognized how good of a job the Student Government students did and teachers, Dean Rocha and Victoria Esser during the HBI event and thanked all that were involved in getting this going. He is excited that Stonington is the first in the state for a program like this. Farouk Rajab thanked all that were involved in the HBI event and recognized the Governor and Lt. Governor for showing their commitment to Stonington, adding he is very appreciative by that.
